

IMI End of Year 2013 Financial Report

IMI continues to provide support to the FPMT community of monks and nuns through a variety of programs and services. The following is a summary of our financial activities for the 2013 fiscal year.

During 2013 IMI had net income of $92,329, thanks in large part to a large donation from an IMI sangha member. IMI continued to expand the way it supports the sangha, by providing regular communications to our community of monks and nuns, offering basic support to our sangha members most in need, providing ordination training programs and support for sangha doing retreat with Lama Zopa Rinpoche. The following is a breakdown of income and expenses during 2013.

Income earned during 2013 amounted to $114,332 and came from FPMT Center support, donations from individuals, interest income and donations from sangha members. The sources of income are presented in the following graph.

Expenses in 2013 amounted to $22,002. The source of expenses incurred are presented in the following graph:

IMI Expenses 2013

If you have any questions or would like a more detailed copy of our financial reports for 2013 please contact office@imisangha.org.